

Corporate Travel Policy

Employees should book travel through approved channels whenever possible.

Reasonable accommodation and transportation expenses are reimbursable.

Receipts should be retained and submitted according to company policy.